

I'm honored to have been selected to share my inspirational story along with other extraordinary women in this highly anticipated book. Released in late September, 2010, this book rapidly achieved multiple bestseller status online (Amazon and Barnes and Noble), claiming the #1 Hot New Releases spot in both the Self-Esteem and Spirituality/Occult categories. The book also ranked as the #2 Amazon Bestseller in both the Happiness and Self-Esteem Categories, surpassing the current Chicken Soup for the Soul book on that date; and #4 in the Spirituality/Occult category, coming in just behind the international sensation, The Secret.

It is felt that this book struck such a chord because so many women today are facing unexpected challenges and life-altering decisions. This book offers an opportunity to peer inside the lives of 41 women who faced such obstacles head on and found "juicy, joyful lives." This inspirational book contains 41 stories of bravery and determination, transformation and love. Honest, funny, touching, and sometimes raw, these vignettes are sure to invite laughter, tears, joyful feelings, and above all, the opportunity to utilize the wisdom of courageous women who boldly stepped forward to claim and create a life filled with happiness, acceptance, abundance, and joy.

If you are looking to go beyond a passive reading experience and journey into the realm of self-discovery, you will not be disappointed.
